

TWO NEW SLACKER LISTS MADE PUBLIC FROM NEW YORK

War Department Says Relatives Give False Service Records to Shield Cited.

The War Department has issued a statement in which it sets forth that it is evident many draft deserters have been deceiving their friends as to their status during the war and that relatives of draft dodgers have been making statements in regard to the alleged service of these men in order to shield them from punishment. These statements, the department adds, have been published by the newspapers in good faith.

The O'Neil case, in Buffalo, is cited. It was said there that John T. O'Neil, who had been killed in France, had been listed, and that his brother had served in the Marine Corps. The Navy Department reports it has no record of Joseph O'Neil or Joseph John O'Neil of Buffalo having served in the corps. The department added no one ever was authorized to publish the name of John T. O'Neil as a draft deserter.

Two additional lists of slackers were given out to-day by Major Gen. Bullard from Governor's Island. They are those of Local Board No. 87 in Brooklyn and Local Board No. 102, on the east side of Manhattan. The names are accompanied with the usual request that any one who has the slightest doubt as to his status in the draft records and who served in the army or navy communicate with the Adjutant General at Washington. The lists are as follows:
